ORDER

The Court has reviewed the Joint Status Report. It appears that there are two major issues of dispute: 1) Whether the Court should order Defendant to increase its rate of processing and production of documents; and 2) Whether the Court should order Vaughn Indexes with Defendant’s productions. Although the parties have provided a summary of their positions on this issue, the Court will allow additional briefing before holding a Zoom conference to address these issues. Accordingly, Plaintiff shall file a brief in support of its position on or before January 9, 2024. Defendant shall file its response within 14 days of Plaintiff’s brief being filed. Plaintiff may file a reply within 7 days of the response. The Court will then set a Zoom conference call. These issues will be decided on an expedited basis.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 14th day of December, 2023.

Leigh Martin May
United States District Judge
